"The presentations and the expert reviews were very instructive. We have learnt a great deal during the event! Congratulations to the teams and organisers!"

"I took notes like being in school, the event was very useful. Arnoud's captivating momentum was so inspiring for us."

"I am grateful having seen some interesting presentations and dozens of new ideas! It was fun not only meeting new people, but also getting to know new tools that I can use."

"The international keynote speaker with simultaneous interpretation was a great idea! It was good to see detailed examples of the results of impact assessment and data-driven communication."
